

On 15 October 2019, the BSB introduced substantial changes to our regulatory decision-making processes that have affected parts of the enforcement system. We have ceased using the terms “complaint” and “complainants” and no longer operate a “pre-complaints” system. We have also removed the distinction between different types of complaints (‘external’ and ‘internal’). Under the new system, any incoming information, including concerns about the conduct of barristers or those we regulate, is treated as a “report”.

The PCD has been disbanded and the assessment function has transferred to a new centralised team known as the “Contact and Assessment Team” which now falls within our new Regulatory Operations Department. Investigations and disciplinary action are now the responsibility of a new Legal and Enforcement Department, which includes the renamed Investigations and Enforcement Team as well as a new Legal Support Team.

The data included in this reports accounts for 'complaints' up until 15th October and 'reports' until 31st December 2019. The number of "reports" are greater than the number of complaints previously reported as "reports" cover a wider range of issues than matters that were previously classed as complaints e.g. it includes reports made under the reporting obligations.
